

A full CV, detailing presentations, publications and performances is available.

TEACHING

New Jersey City University

Assistant Professor/Coordinator of Music Education

September 2018-present

- Graduate courses in Music Education, Music History
- Undergraduate courses in Instrumental Conducting, Applied Flute, Chamber Music, Music History, American Popular Music History, Music Education methods classes, Student teaching observation.

Iona College

Assistant Professor of Fine and Performing Arts (tenure awarded, May 2018)

January 2011- June 2018

- Director: Instrumental Ensemble
 - Arrangements for ensemble
 - Recruitment
 - Concert management
 - Maintain instrument inventory
- Music Appreciation, Music Theory, Music History, American Popular Music History, Music in World Cultures, Women in Music, Music in Film.

Molloy College

Adjunct Assistant Professor

September 2008 – December 2010

- Music Appreciation, Music in America

Bergen Community College

Adjunct Faculty

January 1994 – May 2008

- Director: Instrumental Ensemble, Applied Flute, Music Appreciation, Music History, Music Theory, Integrated Humanities.

Tenafly Middle School

- Band Teacher, Summer Band Program

Summer 2004

Temple Emeth, Teaneck, NJ

Choir Director

August 2017-present

- Conduct Kol Emet (adult amateur choir)
- Select music for services, including High Holidays and several services during the year
- Determine rehearsal schedule
- Coordinate with clergy/synagogue officer

NJ Region I Flute Choir

Conductor

Spring 2016

Community Music Schools/Private Flute Studio

- Paterson Music Project: group lessons
- Private lessons at all levels
 - Regional, All-State Prep; College audition prep, Student recitals
 - Flute Ensembles: Advanced and Intermediate
- Thurnauer School, Garden State Academy, Ridgewood Conservatory, and others
 - Lessons, chamber music, Music Theory

1986-present

EDUCATION

BM, Music Education, Ithaca College, 1982

MM, Woodwind Performance, Boston University, 1987

DMA, Music Education, Boston University, 2009

PERFORMER

I perform at academic conferences by way of blind, peer-review, throughout the United States as well as Europe in addition to recital performances in the Greater New York area. I have been involved in premieres of new works as well as commissioning and recording projects.

SCHOLAR

I have published articles on music history and music education history in academic journals and given presentation at numerous academic conferences. My subject area is music outside the academe during the first third of the twentieth century. I have published two books:

- Musical Tapestries: A Thematic Approach to Music Appreciation
- The Hebrew Orphan Band Asylum of New York City, 1874-1941

ADMINISTRATIVE

New Jersey City University

Music Education Major Coordinator:

- Advise students on academic requirements, student teaching, job searches.
- Maintain program compliance with state requirements for teacher certification
- Faculty advisor for NAFME Collegiate Chapter.
- Music Education Masterclass Series
- Developed online Master of Arts in Music Education.
- Placement of students in student teaching internships.
- Hire adjuncts for student teacher supervision.

Curriculum:

- Wrote and supervised writing of new curriculum for online Master of Arts in Music Education
- Chair: Music, Dance and Theatre Department Curriculum Committee
- College of Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee

Iona College

Assistant Professor (tenure awarded June 2018)

January 2011-July 2018

- Created the music program bringing it from one course to 14 courses and ensembles.
- Freshmen Advisor
- Music Program Advisor
- Designed the first-ever major in the Fine and Performing Arts Department
 - Worked with a variety of constituencies to create the first inter-school/inter-disciplinary major at the college.
 - Shepherded the proposal through state and college governance.
- Revised music minor program along two tracks: Performance and Music History.
- Administration of the Instrumental and Vocal Ensembles.
- Class scheduling
- Maintained music program budget
- Scheduled classes & assigned adjuncts to classes